

YOUNG SPEAKERS GUILD AWARD

Description

The highest level of recognition at ICCFS tournaments will be given to eligible Guild Inductees competing at ICCFS tournaments locally, nationally and internationally.

Purpose

To recognize and award Guild Inductees continuing to

- pursue excellence in communication
- grow in leadership training
- exhibit Christ-like character and
- invest in the lives of those following in their steps.

Eligibility

To be eligible, a Guild Inductee must be:

- in good standing
- a Student Evaluator or Student Evaluator in Training at the qualifying ICCFS Tournament
- competing in a minimum of 3 speech events, 1 of which must be a Guild level event.

Calculation

Award will be given to the highest ranking Guild Inductee(s) based on the following:

- Speakers receive points based on room rank for YSG 2 and YSG 3 events each round:
 - 1st place – 5 points
 - 2nd place – 4 points
 - 3rd place – 3 points
 - 4th place – 2 points
 - 5th and below – 1 point
- Ranking for Guild events are more heavily weighted.
 - Ranking Points are increased by 1.5 for each round.
- Round Table is an additional value.
 - Team Members will receive points based on percentages of top team members.
 - 0-10% – 20 points

- 11-25% - 15 points
- 26-40% - 10 points
- 41-60% - 5 points
- 61- 100% - 0 points
- Facilitators will receive points based on total ratings greater than or equal to the percentages of top team members.
 - 0-10% – 20 points
 - 11-25% - 15 points
 - 26-40% - 10 points
 - 41-60% - 5 points
 - 61- 100% - 3 points